

December 27, 2018

The international rating agency Moody's has upgraded the Baseline Credit Assessment of PrivatBank from caa3 to caa1 following the recent improvement of Ukraine's sovereign bond rating. The rating agency has also uplifted by one notch the Local Currency Deposit Rating (to Caa1) and the Foreign Currency Deposit Rating (to Caa2) of the bank, outlook on ratings changed from «positive» to «stable».

Read more

October 26, 2018

The international rating agency FitchRatings upgraded PrivatBank's National Long-Term Rating to «AA (ukr)» from «AA- (ukr)» and confirmed the bank's Long-Term Issuer Default Rating (IDR) in foreign and local currencies at «B-», the Outlooks are Stable, the Short-Term IDR in foreign currency at «B» and the viability rating at «b-».

Read more

April 10, 2018

S&P confirmed credit ratings of "PrivatBank" at "CCC+/C" level with Stable Outlook.

After that ratings were withdrawn at bank's request. PrivatBank confirmed ending of cooperation as a part of cost optimisation policy.

October 31, 2017

On October 31, 2017, Fitch Ratings raised the National Long-term Rating of "PrivatBank" to 'AA-(ukr)' level with Stable Outlook.

Read more.

August 30, 2017

On August 30, 2017, Moody's raised ratings of "PrivatBank" with Positive outlook following the rise of Ukraine ratings.

Read more.

April 26, 2017

S&P raised credit ratings of "PrivatBank" to "CCC+/C" level with Stable Outlook.

Read more.

December 30, 2016

On December 30, 2016, Standard Rating assigned National Long-term Rating at uaAA level.

Read more: Standard Rating \(as of 30 Dec.2016\)

November 25, 2016

On November 25, 2016, Fitch Ratings revised the National Long-term Rating to 'BB(ukr)' level, international ratings were affirmed at the current level.

Read more: press-release by Fitch Ratings \(as of 25 Nov 2016\)

December 4-7, 2015

Following the successful restructuring of PrivatBank's external debt Fitch and Standard & Poor's rating agencies upgraded bank's credit ratings.

Fitch Ratings upgraded the long-term and short-term counterparty rating in foreign currency to 'CCC / C' from 'RD'. Viability Rating was upgraded to 'ccc' c 'f'.

Standard & Poor's Ratings Services upgraded long-term counterparty credit rating of PrivatBank to 'B-' from 'RD' (on 4 December a technical downgrade from 'CCC' was conducted) and Stand-alone credit profile - to 'b-'.

Read more: press-release by Fitch Ratings, press-releases by Standard & Poor's (as of 4 Dec 2015 and 7 Dec 2015)

November 24, 2015

On November 24, 2015, Moody's Investors Service upgraded PrivatBank's Local Currency Deposit Rating to Caa3, other ratings were affirmed at the current level. The outlook was changed to "Stable" from "Negative". These changes follow the upgrade of Ukraine's sovereign bond rating and successful completion of negotiations with investors on the extension of the bank's Eurobonds.

Read more

September 28, 2015

Standard & Poor's Ratings Services raised PrivatBank's credit ratings to 'CC / C' level following the coupon payment on September 23rd, 2015 on USD 200 mln Eurobonds, which maturity has been extended from September 2015 to January 2018 after reaching an agreement with investors.

Read more

September 18-23, 2015

As a result of signing an additional loan agreement with the holders of USD 200 mln Eurobonds that involves extending the maturity of the bonds and increasing of the interest rate to 10.25%, rating agencies Fitch Ratings and Standard & Poor's Ratings Services revised PrivatBank's ratings.

Thus, Fitch Ratings has downgraded the Long-term and Short-term IDRs in foreign currency to 'RD' level, the Viability Rating (VR) has been revised from 'c' to 'f'. National Long-term Rating and Local Currency IDR have been affirmed at the current level.

Standard & Poor's Ratings Services lowered Bank's long- and short-term ratings to the level «SD». Standalone credit profile (SACP) stands unchanged at 'ccc', reflecting the bank's "adequate" business position according to the agency's opinion.

Read more: press-release by Fitch Ratings

press-release by Standard & Poor's

July 9-10, 2015

During negotiations with investors on extending the maturity of Eurobonds according to recommendations of the National Bank of Ukraine in order to increase capitalization and ease pressure on the currency market of Ukraine rating agencies Standard & Poor's Ratings Services and Fitch Ratings revised PrivatBank's ratings.

On July 9th, 2015 Standard & Poor's revised long-term credit rating of PrivatBank on liabilities in foreign currency to 'CC' from 'CCC'. Short-term rating was affirmed at 'C' and standalone credit profile (SACP) - assigned at 'ccc' level.

Fitch revised long-term foreign currency IDRs to 'C' from 'CCC' and downgraded Viability Rating (VR) to 'c' level on July 10th, 2015. Herewith, long-term local currency IDRs have been affirmed at 'CCC' to reflect the fact that the bank's local currency-denominated liabilities are not included in the restructuring process. National Long-term rating of PrivatBank was affirmed at 'A-(ukr)' with Stable Outlook.

Read more: Standard & Poor's press release

Fitch Ratings press release

April 20, 2015

On April 20th, 2015 Standard & Poor's Ratings Services revised ratings of PrivatBank: Long-term rating on PrivatBank was revised to 'CCC-' from 'CCC' as a result of lowering of foreign currency long-term rating on Ukraine to 'CC' from 'CCC-'. The negative outlook on PrivatBank mirrors the agency's view that sovereign risks in Ukraine strongly influence PrivatBank's creditworthiness. Short-term counterparty credit rating of PrivatBank was affirmed the 'C' level.

Read more

March 26, 2015

On 26 March, 2015 Moody's Investors Service affirmed Foreign Currency Deposit Rating (GFC) of PrivatBank at Ca. The bank's LC deposit and FC senior unsecured debt ratings were changed to Ca. Also the bank's FC subordinated debt rating was changed to C driven by the downgrade of the bank's standalone BCA to ca. These rating actions followed the downgrade of Ukraine's government bond rating.

Read more